Book Bundles

If you are interested in a certain theme and would like a bundle of books to read, call us to reserve your bundle and pick-up time.

We have children's, YA, and Adult Book Bundles! Check out our social media pages and website for pictures of the bundles, or call us and let us know which genre/topics you might be interested in!

Reading Challenges

Do you love to read? Why not complete one of our Winter Reading Challenges! We have challenges for all ages, and everyone receives a prize after completing the challenge.

To register for our reading challenges: Call the Library at 204-857-4271 or email plaprograms@gmail.com with your name, age, phone number/email. You can then request to pick up the challenge from the library, or we can email you a copy.

Happy Reading!

Book Donations:

We are accepting gently used donations of books, DVDs and music CDs by appointment. Please call the library to arrange a date and time. Thank you!

Note: We cannot accept items that have mold/mildew, dirt or stains. We also cannot accept encyclopedia sets, text books past 5 years old, or other dated materials ie: Law. tax information.

Did You Know?

- RB Digital's collection of eMagazines and Audiobooks is accessible to all library members

Activity Kits

Who: For all ages! We have separate kits for ages 3 & up, 10 – 16 and 16 & up including adults! We even have family-specific kits!

What: They could include anything from crafts to fun science experiments! For teens and adults, we have our new Pinterest Night kit which includes a Pinterest craft to make.

When: Every week we will release a new kit for a specific theme/age group. You only have that week (Tuesday to Saturday) to pick up that particular kit. Grab a copy of our calendar to stay up to date, or watch our social media and website!

How: Call the library at 204-857-4271 to reserve a kit and arrange a pick-up time. You are welcome to reserve a kit earlier but can only pick-up during the specified week. Kits are limited –while supplies last.

Why: To have some fun and keep your spirits up during this time! Also, you may learn something new while you are completing the kit!

If you have any questions or would like to reserve an activity kit, please call the library at 204-857-4271.

Tree of Warmth Update

Wow, thank you all for the generous donations of mittens, hats, scarves and all other items of warmth! Check out how full our tree is! (Plus we have extra bags of items that wouldn't fit!) 140 + items have been donated! The Portage Bear Clan will receive the items after they have been sorted, and they will be distributed to people in our community who need them. Thank you!

Have a safe and healthy January!
